SENOR DE LOME'S LAME DEFENSE.

In Trying to Shield Weyler He Exhibits the Manifest Weakness of His Government in Dealing with Cuba.

By Julius Chambers.

Washington, D. C., May 20,-The pub-

dispatch of the Journal.

Senor de Lome says that the order of Spain Is Very Hard Up.

The most significant part of Senor De Lome's defense, is his admission that Spain is so hard driven for money that she is forced to virtually confiscate property owned by Americans, bought and paid for in the Island of Cuba, under a condition of peace as proclaimed by the Government at Madrid, and the dictatorship of Weyler.

If Secretary Olney and the President decline to give Americans who have purchased and paid for tobacco in Guba proper protection, Congress will be asked to take such action as will compel "The Butcher"

to grant sufficient time to pack the tobacco and ship it from the Island.

The committee, it is understood, also hopes to get some additional information within the limits of the Matanzas Province.

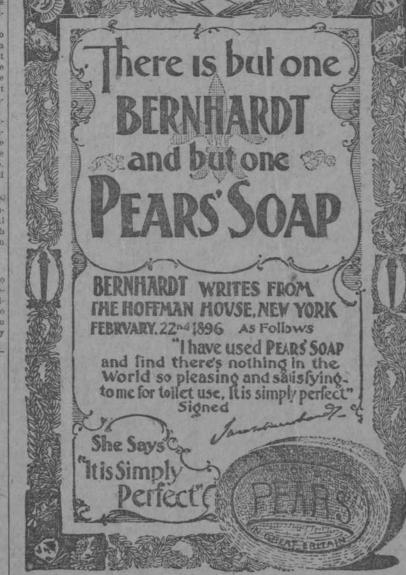

The rebel loss, according to the reports be made public. Until these maters are received, was about fifty killed and wound-forthcoming it is not thought that the ed, including Adjutant Mier, of General committee will act, and whether a report will be made at this session is problem-stated.

From the official report of Senator Morgan's recent speech on his Cuban resolu tions, as published in the Congressional Record, it seems that the sentence which has caused so much indignation in Spain

Mr. Morgan's actual words were: "The people of the United States, who State Department had consented to enter a vigorous protest against General Weyler's order forbidding the exportation of tobacco from Cuba after the 20th inst (to-day) is utterly without foundation.
